

Sanitary and Epidemiological Report

Sanitary and epidemiological report No. 50.RA.05.369.P.000093.02.10 from February 09th, 2010.

The present sanitary and epidemiological report confirms the Pirotex, the (customized) equipment for recycling and utilization of rubber- and polymer-containing wastes manufactured in accordance with TC 3698-002-97792255-2009 “Pirotex, the equipment for recycling and utilization of rubber- and polymer-containing wastes” corresponds to sanitary standards in accordance with Hygienic Norms 2.1.6.1338-03 “Maximum permissible concentration of emissions in the air of residential area”, Hygienic Norms 2.1.6.2309-07 “Approximate safe level of emissions impact in the air of residential area”, Sanitary Regulations and Standards 2.2.4.1191-03 “Electromagnetic fields in working environment”, Sanitary Regulations and Standards 2.2.4/1.1.8.562-96 “Noise in working environment, residential and municipal buildings”, Sanitary Regulations and Standards 2.2.4/2.1.8.566-96 “Vibration in residential and municipal buildings and industrial places”.

Manufacturing company is Jelezno LLC, 100A Respublikanskaya street, Rostov-on-Don, Russia, 344001.

Grounds for issuing the document is the test report No.92/M from January 25th, 2010.